A. A person is guilty of public disturbance if he or she causes a public disturbance or is in possession and control of property on which a public nuisance disturbance occurs. The following sounds are determined to be public nuisance disturbances:

1. The frequent, repetitive or continuous sounding of any horn or siren attached to a motor vehicle, except as a warning of danger or as specifically permitted or required by law.

2. The creation of frequent, repetitive or continuous sounds in connection with the starting, operation, repair, rebuilding or testing of any motor vehicle, motorcycle, off-highway vehicle or internal combustion engine within a residential district, so as to unreasonably disturb or interfere with the peace, comfort, and repose of owners or possessors of real property.

9.26.060

3. Yelling, shouting, hooting, whistling or singing on or near the public streets, particularly between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. or at any time and place so as to unreasonably disturb or interfere with the peace, comfort and repose of owners or possessors of real property.

4. The creation of frequent, repetitive or continuous sounds which emanate from any building, structure, apartment, condominium, or yard adjacent thereto which unreasonably interferes with the peace, comfort, and repose of owners or possessors of real property, such as sounds from musical instruments, audio sound systems, band sessions, or social gatherings.

5. The creating of frequent, repetitive or continuous sounds made by any animal, such as barking or howling, except that such sound made in animal shelters, commercial kennels, veterinary hospitals, pet shops or pet kennels licensed under and otherwise in compliance with the Pacific Municipal Code shall be exempt from this subsection.

6. Sound from motor vehicle audio sound systems such as tape players, radios and compact disc players, operated at a volume so as to be audible greater than 50 feet from the vehicle itself.

7. Sound from portable audio equipment, such as tape players, radios, and compact disc players, operated at a volume so as to be audible greater than 50 feet from the source, and if not operated upon the property of the operator. This provision shall not apply to such sounds emitted from scheduled events or activities at game and recreational facilities such as public address systems for park and game events or concerts or similar park or recreation activities.

8. The creation of frequent, repetitive or continuous sounds in connection with outdoor construction or the movement of construction-related materials, including noise made by devices capable of producing sound by either striking or cutting objects such as hammers, saws or other equipment with internal combustion engines; provided, however, such sounds shall be exempt from the provisions of this code under the following circumstances:

a. During the hours of 7:00 a.m. through 8:00 p.m., Monday through Sunday; or

b. In commercial areas not adjacent to residential areas.

B. The foregoing enumeration of acts and noises shall not be construed as excluding other acts and noises which offend the public peace.

- 9.60.020 Juvenile curfew.
- 9.60.030 Parental responsibility.
- 9.60.040 Exemptions.
- 9.60.050 Temporary custody procedure.

9.60.010 Definitions.

A. "Curfew hours" means:

1. 11:30 p.m. on any Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday, unless said days are holidays, until 6:00 a.m. of the following day; and

2. 12:30 a.m. until 6:00 a.m. on any Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

B. "Emergency" means an unforeseen combination of circumstances or the resulting state that calls for immediate action. The term includes, but is not limited to, a fire, a natural disaster, an automobile accident or any situation requiring immediate action to prevent serious bodily injury or loss of life.

C. "Establishment" means any privately owned place of business operated for a profit to which the public is invited, including but not limited to any place of amusement or entertainment.

D. "Guardian" is any person other than a parent who has legal guardianship of a juvenile.

E. "Juvenile" means any unemancipated person under the age of 18 years.

F. "Parent" means the natural parent, adopted parent or stepparent of a juvenile.

G. "Public place" means any place to which the public or a substantial group of the public has access and includes, but is not limited to, streets, highways and common areas of schools, apartment houses, office buildings, transportation facilities, and shops.

H. "Remain" means to linger or stay.

I. "Serious bodily injury" means bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes death, serious permanent disfigurement or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ. (Ord. 1333 § 1, 1997).

9.60.020 Juvenile curfew.

A. It shall be a civil infraction for any juvenile to remain in any public place or establishment within the city during curfew hours.

B. It shall be a complete defense to prosecution under subsection A of this section that the juvenile was acting within the provisions of PMC 9.60.040.

C. The civil infraction penalty for a first violation of this section within a one-year period shall be $75.00; for a second offense within a one-year period the penalty shall be $150.00; and for a third or subsequent violation within a one-year period the penalty shall be $300.00. #### 9.60.030 Parental responsibility.

A. It shall be a civil infraction for the parent, guardian or other adult person having custody or control of any juvenile to permit or knowingly allow such juvenile to remain in any public place or establishment within the city of Pacific during curfew hours.

B. It shall be a complete defense to prosecution under subsection A of this section that the juvenile was acting within the provisions of PMC 9.60.040.

C. Any parent, guardian, or other adult person having custody or control of a juvenile, that is unable to control the actions of the juvenile, may notify the Pacific police department in writing of the inability to control the actions of the juvenile. It shall be a complete defense to prosecution under subsection A of this section that the parent, guardian, or other adult person provided the notice contemplated under this subsection to the Pacific police department.

D. The civil infraction penalty for a first violation of this section within a one-year period shall be $75.00; for a second offense within a one-year period the penalty shall be $150.00; and for a third or subsequent violation within a one-year period the penalty shall be $300.00. Sentencing to community service in lieu of monetary fine shall be within the discretion of the court. (Ord. 1333 § 3, 1997).

9.60.040 Exemptions.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the following situations:

A. If the juvenile is accompanied by his or her parent, legal guardian or other responsible person who is over the age of 21 and approved by the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian or other adult person having custody or control of the juvenile to accompany said juvenile.

B. If the juvenile is on an errand as directed by his or her parent, guardian, custodian or other adult person having custody or control of the juvenile.

C. If the juvenile is legally employed, for the period of one-half hour before to one-half hour after work, while going directly between his or her home and place of employment. This exception shall also apply if the juvenile is in a public place or establishment during curfew hours in the course of his or her employment.

D. If the juvenile is coming directly home from an adult organized and supervised activity or place of public entertainment, such as a movie, play or sporting event. This exception will apply for one-half hour after completion of such event.

E. If the juvenile is on an emergency errand directed or permitted by his or her parent, guardian, custodian or other adult person having custody or control of the juvenile.

F. If the juvenile is traveling by direct routes to or from an event sponsored by an accredited educational institution.

G. If the juvenile is in a motor vehicle and engaged in interstate travel with the consent of a parent, guardian, custodian or other adult person having custody or control of the juvenile through the state of Washington.

H. If the juvenile is exercising First Amendment rights protected by the United States Constitution, such as the free exercise of religion, freedom of speech, and the right of assembly.

I. If the juvenile is married and thus has achieved the age of majority pursuant to RCW 26.28.020, or has become emancipated in accordance with RCW 13.64.060(2). (Ord. 1333 § 4, 1997).

9.60.050 Temporary custody procedure.

A police officer who reasonably believes that a juvenile is violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall have the authority to take the juvenile into custody and deliver or arrange to deliver the juvenile either to:

A. The juvenile’s parent, guardian, custodian or other adult person having custody or control of the juvenile;

B. A friend or neighbor of the juvenile, over the age of 18 years, who is willing to assume temporary custody of the juvenile;

C. The city of Pacific police station or other facility operated by the city of Pacific police department; or

D. The appropriate juvenile authority. (Ord. 1333 § 5, 1997).

9.96.010 Penalties.

Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, violation of any provision of this chapter shall be punishable by:

A. Gross Misdemeanor. Every person convicted of a gross misdemeanor defined in PMC Title 9 shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for a maximum term fixed by the court of not more than one year, or by a fine in an amount fixed by the court of not more than $5,000, or by both such imprisonment and fine.

B. Misdemeanor. Every person convicted of a misdemeanor defined in PMC Title 9 shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for a maximum term fixed by the court of not more than 90 days, or by a fine in an amount fixed by the court of not more than $1,000, or by both such imprisonment and fine. (Ord. 1389 § 42, 1998; Ord. 1167 § 9, 1992; Ord. 568 § 10(a), 1975).

9.96.020 Costs of prosecution.

Whenever anyone is convicted of an offense under any section of this title, or section of any city ordinance, the court may, as authorized by law, impose reasonable costs of prosecution in addition to the fine imposed. The court may so impose costs for issuance of bench warrants in an amount not to exceed $100.00. (Ord. 1389 § 43, 1998; Ord. 729 § 1, 1979; Ord. 568 § 10(b), 1975).

9.96.030 Probation violations.

A. For purposes of this section, the word "probationer" means any person who after conviction of violation of an ordinance of the city or a law of the state has been placed on probation in connection with the suspension or deferral of sentence by either a district court of this county, municipal court or the superior court, and/or has a portion of his or her sentence suspended or deferred for a period of time during which they are to have no additional law violations and are to abide by the terms of the sentence imposed by a district court, municipal court, or superior court.

B. Whenever a police officer shall have probable cause to believe that a probationer, prior to the termination of his probation is in such police officer's presence, violating or failing to comply with any requirement or restriction imposed by the court as a condition of such probation, such officer may cause the probationer to be brought before the court wherein sentence was deferred or suspended, and for such purpose such police officer may arrest such probationer without warrant or other process. (Ord. 1389 § 44, 1998).
